John Wanamaker's Store. The Millinery vs. the Weather. HIGHER COMPLIMENT could not be paid to the attractiveness of our Millinery than the fact that it proved superior to the weather conditions of yesterday, and that all who came felt repaid for coming.

We are putting especial stress on the feature of selection in the imported hats. There is not one of them which does not bear a famous name, but the very breadth of that fame proves the accessibility of the makers to general mercantile approach.

Therefore it is the selection, even among masterpieces, which counts,—and it counts heavily in this collection.

Of the productions of our own designers we say little, although there is much to say. We place them beside the picked models of the world's best designers with perfect confidence, and leave the rest to your own judgment and preference.

In Untrimmed Hats and English Walking and Cycling Hats, there is such an assortment here as wholly prohibits detail or attempt at detail. You must see it for yourself, and if you would see it thoroughly, you must take a day to it.

Our "view days" continue to-day and to-morrow.

A Saving on We have acquired 150 Toilet Sets, of Toilet Sets, eleven pieces each, in underglaze printed patterns. They are recent shapes, of large size and well finished. They are of the grade which commands a fixed retail price of $3.50, and so far as we know have never been sold for less money than that. We offer these 150 sets for $2.50, complete with Jar, $1.75, without Jar.

The goods are perfect in every way. Don't let this price deceive you into thinking them seconds.

About PRINCIPALLY about the "Lillian," although you'll find almost all makes in this corset store. We control the sale of the "Lillian," which we consider the finest corset made. That opinion is fostered by many women who have purchased them here on our recommendation. There are thirty-seven styles of this perfect-fitting corset, and prices run from $1 to $20. Here are three of the more popular kinds:

At $1.25—Of coutil; medium length waist, 2 1/2 inches; trimmed with lace. At $3.50—Of white and drab coutil; medium and long waist, bias and straight cut. Some in black sateen, $4. At $5.50—Of coutil; made entirely on the bias; gored bust and hips; all whitebone; trimmed top and bottom with lace and ribbon. Same in black sateen, $6.50. White, pink and blue satins at $8.

Two other sorts that are well liked. A corset that appeals especially to stout figures is called "Her Majesty." In white, drab or black; guaranteed unbreakable, $2.75 to $5; in fancy satin, $10. The "L. R." also made solely for us, and one that has many friends, comes in many styles, 75c to $3.25.

HEARN. In Advertisements of Merchandise Which is BETTER Untruthful, Alluring Descriptions or SIMPLE FACTS.

SOME CLAIM that the public should be taken into confidence and advertisements made attractive by talking to them in a kind and friendly way. OTHERS CLAIM that the public should not be taken into confidence and advertisements should be made plain, straightforward statements are the only proper methods. That deceptive announcements should not be countenanced.
